For we died and were buried with Christ by baptism. And just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glorious power of the Father, now we also may live new lives. Romans 6:4 (NLT)

What is baptism?

An outward sign of an inward change.

Those who become Christians become new persons. They are not the same anymore, for the old life is gone. A new life has begun! 2 Corinthians 5:17 (NLT)

When we make a commitment of our lives to Jesus Christ there is a transformation that takes place. It might not be seen immediately, but it happens. It's a heart deal. Your heart changes, you really are a new creation. When you are baptized, as you go beneath the water, it pictures your old life being gone, and when you're raised out of the water, it pictures that your new life has come.

An act of obedience.

Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age. Matthew 28:19-20 (NIV)

Baptism is a tremendous act of obedience. It's something you do because Jesus said that we are to do it. We're showing God and others, right from the beginning, that we are going to do our best to obey what Jesus says. And it has such a powerful meaning to you!

In Matthew 28, the Great Commission, Jesus instructed His followers to baptize in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Here's why: You will be baptized in the name of the Father because God could not imagine heaven without you. You will be baptized in the name of the Son because Jesus had you on His heart while He hung on the cross. And you will be baptized in the name of the Spirit because God by His Spirit lives in you to help you and empower you as you live for Jesus every day!

A picture of the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus.

...Christ died for our sins...was buried...and He was raised from the dead.... 1 Corinthians 5:3-4 (NLT)

When you are baptized, and you are standing in the water, that will be a picture of Jesus before He died. When you go down under the water, that will be a picture of what? That's right...His burial. And, when you are brought back up out of the water, that is a picture of what? That's right...His resurrection.

So...you need to be really thankful that Jesus rose from the dead. Otherwise, we'd just have to hold you under the water.

What is the biblical pattern of baptism?

We want, in our practices as a church, to be as close as possible to the patterns we find in the Bible. That includes how we baptize. When we talk about the biblical pattern of baptism there are two crucial elements.

I. It always follows belief.

We know that from studying how the first church did its baptisms. When we look at the early church, there was a clear pattern that developed.

The early church pattern:

- taught
- believed
- baptized

Those who believed what Peter said were baptized.... Acts 2:41 (NLT)

This was one of the greatest Biblical accounts of a group conversion to ever take place. The total was about 3000 people.

But now the people believed Philip's message of Good News concerning the Kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ. As a result, many men and women were baptized. Acts 8:12 (NLT)

As she listened to us, the Lord opened her heart, and she accepted what Paul was saying. She was baptized.... Acts 16:14b-15 (NLT)

"She" here is a lady named Lydia. She lived in a city called Thyatira. Paul had gone down by the riverside, the place of prayer. He met Lydia. She was taught, she believed, and she was baptized. Do you see this pattern?

Later in Acts 16, Paul and Silas are in prison. They are praying and singing songs of praise. An earthquake comes, the prison doors are opened and the chains fall off them. The jailer, thinking Paul and Silas have escaped, pulls his sword to take his life. Paul cries out to him to stop. The jailer falls before Paul and Silas and asks "What must I do to be saved?" Look at what they did...

Then they shared the word of the Lord with him and all who lived in his household. That same hour the jailer washed their wounds, and he and everyone in his household were immediately baptized. Acts 16:32-33 (NLT)

Do you see the pattern? People were taught, they believed, then they were baptized. It is consistent in every one of those passages of Scripture. If you ever want to show that to someone, here's how you can remember off the top of your head where these examples are found. Baptism is an act of obedience, so you go to the book of Acts. And the chapters are 2, 8, and 16.  $2 \times 8 = 16$ .

2. It is often by immersion.

...they went down into the water, and Philip baptized him.
When they came up out of the water... Acts 8:38-39
(NLT)

Here's what was happening in this verse. Philip was walking down a road where God had told him to go and he met an Ethiopian eunuch. Philip explained the scriptures and Jesus to the eunuch and the eunuch asked to be baptized.

When you read they went down into the water and came up out of the water, what's the mental picture you get of what they did, just that part of the description? Sure, they walked down in, and they walked out. Why do you think they would bother to go into the water and get soaked if Philip could have just poured or sprinkled some water on the Ethiopian's head?

Baptize literally means to:

- immerse
- dip
- submerge
- plunge

Does anyone know what significant event happened in 1611? The King James Version of the Bible was translated. Prior to that time, the English word "baptize" did not exist. Here's a loose paraphrase of what happened. The scholars were translating all the Greek words into English. They translated "Theos" into "God" because that's what it meant. They translated "agape" into "love" because that's what it meant. However, when they came to the Greek word "baptizo" if they had translated it into what it meant, they would have used a word like "dip," or "immerse," or "plunge," or "submerge." Here was the problem. The Church of England didn't immerse, they sprinkled. So if they had translated the word "baptizo," the Church of England would have had to have changed it's practice. So, instead of translating "baptizo," they transliterated it. That means they took the Greek "b" and wrote an English "b". They took the Greek "a" and wrote an English "a" and so on until they developed the word "baptize." By doing this, they were able to continue to sprinkle and didn't have to begin immersing, following the biblical meaning of the word for "baptizo."

Why should I be baptized?

As a demonstration that I will follow the example of Jesus.

One day Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee, and he was baptized by John in the Jordan River. Mark 1:9 (NLT)

So much of what Jesus did in His life, He didn't do because He needed to do that, but in order for there to be a model for us to follow. That's true with baptism. Jesus didn't need to be baptized...He was sinless, perfect. But, He was baptized in order to give us an example to follow. And when He was baptized there was a voice, the voice of God that came out of heaven and said, "This is my Son, in whom I am well pleased." In other words, when Jesus was baptized, that thrilled the heart of the Father. Well, we need to demonstrate that we are willing to follow the example of Jesus, and the first place we need to follow His example is in baptism.

As a display of my new life in Christ.

For you were buried with Christ when you were baptized. And with Him you were raised to a new life because you trusted the mighty power of God, who raised Christ from the dead. You were dead because of your sins and because your sinful nature was not yet cut away. Then God made you alive with Christ. He forgave all our sins. He canceled the record that contained the charges against us. He took it and destroyed it by nailing it to Christ's cross. Colossians 2:12-14 (NLT)

It's the right step after believing.

As they traveled along the road, they came to some water and the eunuch said, "Look, here is water. Why shouldn't I be baptized?" Acts 8:36 (NIV)

Isn't that a great question: "Why shouldn't I be baptized?" That's really the right question. "Why should I be baptized?" is a defensive question. When we say, "Why shouldn't I be baptized?," we're saying there's really no reason in the world for me not to be. Or, give me a reason why I shouldn't. The assumption then becomes that I should, and that's the right assumption. Baptism is just the right, logical, next step to take once you believe.

Have You
Been Baptized?

---

1. How old do I need to be?

Matthew 9:29

Then he touched their eyes and said, "According to your faith will it be done to you"

Generally baptism should be done when a person understands the basic foundations of their faith and is capable of sharing them.

2. What if I was baptized before?

Romans 14:23

But the man who has doubts is condemned if he eats, because his eating is not from faith; and everything that does not come from faith is sin.

Often this question only arises because an individual feels they have not walked according to their faith and have recently rededicated their lives to Him. The Bible doesn't tell us how often to be baptized but that we should do everything in our faith sincerely. Being re-baptized to again publicly announce your future with Him could never be something viewed as wrong.

3. What if I was baptized as an infant?

We should never look down at being baptized as an infant. It was an act of faith by someone who loved us enough to bring us before God. The issue of public confession of a personal faith becomes the only challenge at infant baptism. We don't believe being baptized again would negate your infant baptism but enhance it.

4. Who can baptize me?

The act of baptism is not restricted to just the clergy. In many cases it was the person who led the new believer to Christ. At CCF, we ask that it be a person where close accountability and discipleship for your spiritual growth is occurring.
